U. M. C. CARTRIDGES

for every gun in camp

Different men differ as to their favorite kind of rifle. Practically all agree, however, on U. M. C. Cartridges. A glimpse at the interior of most any hunting shack presents these facts. There is a reason U. M. C. Cartridges are made to fit and are tested in all the different styles of rifles made by the different arms companies.

Every rifle does better shooting with U. M. C. Cartridges.

There are a great many very attractive fishing and summer resorts in Maine, but only one Rangeley Lake House.

This is the distributing point for the great Rangeley Lakes region. It is reached by one day's ride from Boston. Strictly first-class service is found here. Many of our patrons say that there is nothing wanting. We have trout and salmon fishing, golf, tennis, boating, beautiful drives and walks. Write for illustrated booklet to the RANGELEY LAKES HOTEL COMPANY.

We Are Already

It is not for the firm of Ed Grant & Sons to tell you of the merits of Seven Ponds and Kennebag. We let our friends do that but we do guarantee you the best of service in every respect. Our guests will be glad to know that we have added some of the latest improvements to our camps, such as the Victoria Acetylene Gas Plant, also repairs on our camps and completion of new log camps, thus combining all the comforts of civilization with the delights of the woods. We already have the best of telephone and telegraph service.

We wish to call special attention to the extension of our ticket line. Tickets can be bought in all of the principal cities east of Buffalo to Loon Lake, Kennebag and return. This new arrangement saves you money. Price of tickets Boston to Kennebag and return, $4.50; New York to Kennebag and return, via Sound lines, $22.50; via all rail, $24.50 (either via Boston or via Worcester and Portland). Our buckboard is in constant attendance on all trains, or boats arriving at Rangeley. The Maine Steamship Company sell tickets from New York to Portland and return for $8.00; Portland to Kennebag and return, $10.00.

Parties can leave Boston at 9 o'clock a. m., on either the Eastern or Western division of the Boston & Maine railroad for Portland, Maine Central to Farmington and the Sandy River and Phillips & Rangeley railroads to Rangeley, or from Portland via Maine Central to Rumford Junction, Portland & Rumford Falls railroad to South Rangeley and the Rangeley Lakes steamboats to Rangeley.

New Train Service—In addition to the former transportation facilities, sleepers will run each way between Boston and Rangeley every night, Sundays included, through the season of 1906. Trains reach Rangeley in time for breakfast. The schedule will take effect June 4, 1906. Train leaves Boston at 10 p. m., arriving at Rangeley at 7:30 a. m. Returning train leaves Rangeley at 6:30 p. m., arriving in Boston early the next morning.

WAINE WOODS (weekly) advertising columns bring excellent results.

John Cosgove is the name of the champion rainbow trout fisher of Colorado.

An Illinois man is an expert at catching catfish with his hands. He dives for 'em.

Illinois reports some success hatching pheasant eggs imported from England and China.

The beef scandal in Chicago is said to have developed abnormal appetites in the Windy City for good fish.

An Ohio man has the nerve to set up the claim that he has been harshly treated by wardens who seized his nets.

It is estimated that in Virginia and North Carolina from September 1 to April 30 there are four bob white's (quail) to each square mile of land.

Partridges are reported very plentiful in the Dead River region this summer. One man reports to MAINE WOODS that he saw five flocks last week while going a mile on a road that is used considerably. The young birds evidently stood the spring rains well.

The lower ranges of the Himalaya mountains of Asia are inhabited by a beautiful kind of game birds, known as the Kaleege Pheasants, the Cheer and the Kohlass. Six species of the first named are represented in the collection of the New York Zoological Park, each resembling each other in the general characteristics which mark the family.

Hancock County, Maine.

To the Editor of MAINE WOODS:

Will you kindly allow me space in your valuable paper to say a few words about a small section of this state which is but little known comparatively to the vast army of hunters, fishermen and pleasure seekers who annually visit the state of Maine. I refer to the northern part of Hancock county. This section combines as many natural advantages as any within our state. Situated on Union river and its tributaries which flow along the base of forest crowned hills and dotted here and there with beautiful lakes it presents a picture of natural beauty unsurpassed. A ride of 25 miles from Bangor brings one to the prosperous country towns of Amherst and Aurora.

Here are located many fine farms and here one can find excellent board by the day or week. In Aurora is located the famous "Horseback", a narrow ridge three miles long with almost perpendicular sides rising several hundred feet with just room for a road which runs along the top for its entire length.

From here can be seen spread out in panoramic view, hill, mountain and plain through which winds the middle branch of Union river. Eight miles farther on is situated the little village of Great Pond on a beautiful hill overlooking the valley of Union river and nearly surrounded by a chain of lakes. This place is destined to become in the near future a paradise of hunters and fishermen. Although slightly removed from the main travelled route to our north woods it offers the best of hunting and fishing to those who are willing to make the effort to reach it which only means a pleasant ride of 30 miles by buckboard from the railroad station at Bangor.

Several sporting camps have already been erected at Great Pond, Alligator and Long lakes. Those at Great Pond and Long lake are owned and managed by Messrs. Patterson and Williams and the one at Alligator lake by Mr. John T. Haynes. All of these gentlemen are competent guides and experienced woodsmen and their camps, boats and canoes are all up to date. The lakes are well stocked with trout, salmon and togue while excellent trout fishing is found in the streams that abound.

Now just a word as to the hunting possibilities. A short time ago I had occasion to make a trip across Great Pond and up Dead stream which is a tributary of Great Pond. In one day's travel I saw and counted 24 deer and 3 other besides seeing the fresh trail of several moose and a bear. The deer were tame and if I had had a camera I could have easily taken pictures of half of them as they stood feeding along the bank of the stream. It is safe to say that next October no better hunting can be found than in this section which I have attempted to describe.

The Marlin Baby Featherweight Repeater. A new high-grade .22 caliber repeating rifle which weighs only 3 pounds 10 ounces!

But this gun is no toy. It is a new and business-like rifle. It combines all the good old Marlin features—solid top, side ejection and simple mechanism—with the newer sliding forearm action which is so easy to work without spoiling the aim. The reduction of cost and weight is positively not at the expense of Marlin quality. The high standard Marlin drop forgings are used in the breech block, frame and inside working parts. The rifle has the pleasant Marlin balance. Both .22 short and .22 long-rifle cartridges can, by means of an extra carrier, be used in the same gun—a Marlin feature which all rifle shooters greatly enjoy.

If your dealer cannot supply you write us direct. A complete description of this little rifle is given in our 1906 Catalogue. Sent FREE for six cents postage.

RANGELEY LAKE HOUSE.

[Special Correspondence to MAINE WOODS.]

RANGELEY LAKE HOUSE,
June 27, 1906.

Mr. C. P. Stevens of Malden spent some time looking over the fish record this morning and just passed me a card that reads as follows: "Rangeley Lake House fish score 1906, from May 15 to July 3, inclusive 278 fish weight 1147 3-4 pounds average weight per fish 4-pounds 2 1-4-ounces. Note no fish scored under 3-pounds."

Never in the history of the Rangeley fishing have the guests of the Rangeley Lake House had such sport with the gamy salmon as during the past few days. All records having been broken as 68 weighing from 3 to 8 pounds each have been taken.

Fish facts are stubborn truths that cannot be doubted, and yet one need have no fear but what the sport will continue, as two-thirds of the fish after being weighed were returned to the lake.

On Wednesday we will give the record of the week as taken from the hotel office. On Wednesday, June 27th but two salmon were taken. H. C. Dennison of New Bedford, Vid Hinkley, guide, 3 1-4-pounds. Dr. C. W. Packard of New York, E. T. Hoar, guide, 4 3-4-pounds.

Thursday, June 28th Mrs. J. W. Carr of New York City, Isaac Tibbetts, guide, caught four record salmon weighing as follows: 5, 4 3-4, 3 pounds, which is the best record made in one day by any lady angler this year. Charles P. Stephens of Malden, Mass., Aaron Soule, guide, caught a good pair 4, 3 1-4 pounds. J. O. Erckins of New York City, Mell Tibbetts guide, two salmon 3 and 4 pounds.

The following day Friday was fish day, Dr. C. W. Packard of New York City, 6 1-4 and 3 1-4-pound salmon. His brother Prof. Packard of Princeton one of 4 pounds. G. N. Proctor of Fitchburg, Mass., Joe Lamb, guide, caught three beauties that weighed 3 1-2, 5 and 6 pounds each.

Mr. W. S. Marble, who for twelve years has not been fishing invited his brother-in-law, Ralph T. Kendall of Portland for a day's fishing. Mell Tibbetts was their guide, and the ten fish between 2 and 3 pounds that they returned to the water were not counted, but each brought in a pair that attracted much admiration. Those of W. S. Marble weighing 5 and 6 pounds each. Mr. Kendall's 3 and 5 1-2 pounds. That day's sport was as much as some have in a dozen years.

One Saturday the last day of June, E. Ledieley of New York caught two, one 6-pounds and the other 7 3-4 pounds. Dr. C. W. Packard of New York an 8-pounder and one of 4 1-2 pounds. His brother, Prof. W. A. Packard of Princeton 4 1-2 pounds. H. C. Fennison of New Bedford one of 5 pounds and one of 3 1-4 pounds. G. N. Proctor of Fitchburg 3 1-4-pound salmon. Mrs. C. P. Stevens of Malden, Mass., Aaron Soule, guide, caught two nice salmon 3 pounds and 3 1-2 pounds.

That the fishing should continue in the July days surprises all. True most of the fish are caught trolling, others with a fly.

On Sunday July 1st J. W. Argenbright of New York with Joe Tibbetts, guide, caught three salmon that weighed 3, 3 3-4, and 4 3-4 pounds. James S. Proctor of Fitchburg, Mass., Joe Lamb, guide, caught a 4 1-2 and 3 pounds.

Monday, July 2nd was a great day 16 being recorded. Prof. Packard of Princeton College taking five of them that weighed as follows: 3, 3 1-4, 3 1-2, 3 1-4 and 5 pounds each. They are all in the lake and will weigh more another season. His brother, Dr. W. C. Packard caught one 6 1-4 pound salmon. J. Heiden, New York, Elmer Snowman, guide, one of 4 pounds. H. C. Dennison of New Bedford, Mass., Vid Hinkley, guide, two salmon 3 3-4 pounds. J. S. Proctor of Fitchburg one of 5 pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph T. Kendall of Portland, F. Tibbetts, guide, each caught a 4-pound salmon. Mrs. C. P. Stevens of Malden, one 3 3-4 pounds. Harry Bauchle of New York took a good trio weighing 3, 3 1-2 and 4 pounds.

Catch of Over One Hundred Trout at Rock Pond.

(Special correspondence to MAINE WOODS.)

EUSTIS, July 10, 1906.

Fishing is holding out fine and we have to tell people only to catch what they want to eat. All the fishing here is done with flies and it is no trouble at all even for a novice to get all the fish he wants. Our many outlying ponds and camps are as usual well patronized and people return with best reports in regard to trip and sport. A party recently returning from the Rock Pond trip reported a catch of over a hundred trout. They put back in the water most of them, among them 21 weighing over one pound. The fishing at the home lake is better than ever.

Recent arrivals are:

GUIDE HIGGINS WINS.

Canoe Contest Ended This Week With a Good Score.

The MAINE WOODS Canoe Contest that has been running for several weeks, ended last Monday with John Higgins of Allen's Mills the winner. Following is the score as it stood at the close of the contest:

John Higgins, Allen's Mills,	13,167
Jim Harlow, Dead River,	11,005
N. W. McNaughton, Schoodic,	10,163
Pete Lufkin, Mad'id,	326
Ozro Roy, Jr., Livermore Falls	202
Geo. C. Jones, Moxie,	200
Lorin Haley, Rangeley,	8
Thos. C. Jones, Gardiner,	5
Hillard C. Schoffu, Ch-rryfield,	3

Total vote, 35,079

This contest has been rather the most successful one that we ever conducted for the guides. Mr. Higgins has been notified that he will receive a nice canoe made by B. N. Morris of Veazie whose cances have a reputation that is not excelled anywhere.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Wouldn't a woman be happy, After years of backache suffering, Days of misery, nights of unrest, The distress of urinary troubles, To find relief and cure? No reason why any reader Should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Almira A. Jackson, of East Front St., Traverse City, Mich., says: "For twenty years I was doctoring for kidney and liver trouble, but without benefit. Just before I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I was almost paralyzed. I could hardly stand on my feet because of the numbness and lack of circulation. Had a knife been thrust into my kidneys the pain could not have been more intense. My sleep was disturbed by visions of distorted figures. The kidney secretions were annoyingly irregular, and I was tortured with thirst and always bloated. I used seven boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. The bloating subsided until I weighed 100 pounds less, could sleep like a child and was relieved of the pain and the irregularity of the kidney action. My circulation is good and I feel better in every way."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mrs. Jackson will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists; price, 50 cents per box.

A Whining and a Pining 'till the Ice Goes Out.

(EDWARD HAVEN GOODENOUGH.)

The ice has been a cracking Ever since last week, Oh! how my bones are aching for the fray; For under this congealment, Lying in secure concealment, Are the salmon I am longing for to slay.

The ice is now a breaking And a disappearing fast, Cracks are getting wider every minute; I am praying for the day, When the ice will float away, Bet-your-life old rod and me will be right in it, Hurrah! the ice is floating And a disappearing fast, Canoe a-working when the opening's wide; Old rod is quickly pointed, And the clicking reel anointed, Then the linen thro the eyelets quickly slides.

Now we're out into clear water With the paddle laid aside, And with nervous thrill we make a sweeping cast; Watching with an eager eye, That long flight of gandy fly, Jack! arise from those cold depths, and break your fast!

No old giant from below, Shows the eagerness desired, By the holder of the "Bethbora" true; 'Tis to early for the "fly" So we'll cast another "die" Drop the glistening troll into the waters blue.

Take the graceful paddle up, Force ahead your lissome craft, See the ripples as your troll alluring glides; Like a terror stricken smelt, Death to him already felt, As he feels the teeth of foe within his sides.

Something doing now you say? For your reel is singing, And your pulses are a-jumping with sher fright; Paddle lying at your feet, Rod a-bending till points meet, And your line is just a-screaming with delight.

Every year at birth of May, Finds the chain o'er-galling, Hie to Maines vast solitudes when the duds are boasting; 'Tis the end of winter drear, Now the skies are warm and clear, For these days you long have been a thirsting.

What's the use of pining For the luxuries of life, There is nothing bought with money "touches" fishing? For the clicking of your reel Is the sweetest music, as you feel The silken thread a whining and a swishing.

This is no fish story, it is the "reel" article. The marvel of the age to anglers is the "Takapart" reel. If you have not seen it send for their booklet at once and know about it. Take our advice and head off trouble when you go fishing by taking one with you. Send postal to maker, A. F. Meisselbach & Bro., 39 Prospect St. Newark, N. J., and say you saw it in MAINE WOODS.

Will stand the closest scrutiny. Investigate them and you will buy no other. The H. & R. Revolvers are known around the world for their safety, accuracy, durability, perfect design, and general superiority.

Only the most skilled mechanics and only the finest quality of material employed in their manufacture. Every piece is finished to the looth part of an inch and its perfectly, no rattle in "H. & R." much as a quick snake reverts in other makes. Every revolver that leaves the factory has passed the most rigid inspection and is guaranteed perfect. Barrel and cylinder drilled from solid piece of finest forged steel, solid steel frame, handsome rubber stock, affording good grip.

Soted for smooth action, perfect accuracy and power. Don't experiment with an unreliable make because low price is offered as a tempting bait. The H. & R. Model 1906 Double Action Revolver is medium in size, weight and price, but an effective weapon. $2 caliber, 5 shot C. F. S. & W. cartridge.

2 1/2 in. barrel, nickel finish, $2.50. 4 1/4 in. barrel, $3.00. 6 in. barrel, $3.50. For blue finish add 50c. to either size. Greatest value ever offered for the price.

Sold at all dealers in reliable sporting goods. If not sold in your town, we will ship direct prepaid on receipt of price.

REDINGTON CAMPS.

FISHING AT REDINGTON CAMPS UP TO THE STANDARD.

Merry Party There Over Sunday.

Arrivals for the Past Two Weeks.

(Special Correspondence to MAINE WOODS.)

REDINGTON, July 11, 1906.

The fishing at Redington Camps is always right up to the standard according to Prof. L. R. Morse of Atlantic City, N. J. who spent a few days there last week. On his return from the pond one morning his reply to the usual "what luck" was, "luck? why I never fished at Redington yet without catching some fish and I've fished here a good many years."

W. E. Sawyer and Earl W. Sawyer of Wilton, Me., who are spending two weeks at the Camps are living up to their reputation as fishermen. They never fail to bring in a string of beauties.

Redington is a great place for the business man who wants to forget stocks and bonds for a while, have a good rest and return to his office invigorated in mind and body.

William Call and wife of Stamford, Conn. are having excellent success with fly rod and camera. A camera is a pretty good thing to have along on a fishing trip; one can photograph the exciting episodes and have some proof to show to one's incredulous Wall street friends when spinning a good fish story about the good catches made in a pond way up in the backwoods of Maine. When the day's fishing is over there is always "something doing."

Chas. H. Loomis and Harold G. Loomis of Medford, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Lawton of Gardiner, Me.; Sumner E. Austin of Farmington; W. A. Lee and wife of Stratton; W. E. Sawyer and Earl W. Sawyer of Wilton, Me.

Charles H. Loomis and Harold G. Loomis of Medford, Mass., who are stopping at the "Fir Boughs" for two weeks are succeeding unusually well in luring the speckled denizens of the pond from their retreats.

Deputy Lester D. Eaton and Dr. John Nichols, of Farmington, fished at Redington Wednesday, catching their limit of trout. They returned on the night express, expressing themselves as delighted with the fishing.

Willis E. Bachelier of New York and a party of six who are spending the summer at Blue Mountain Camps arrived Wednesday, July 11th to try their luck with the fly rod.

There does not seem to be any dull season at Redington. The pond is so well stocked that one can always be sure of a good string of trout. There is no better place than Redington Camps for those who feel the "Call of the Wild."

Following is a list of the guests during the past two weeks:

FISHING AT CARRY.

LANE'S PLACE GIVES UP LOTS OF SQUARE TAIL TROUT.

People Who Have Been There and Some Others Who Are There Now.

(Special Correspondence to MAINE WOODS.)

CARRY POND, July 7, 1906.

There is a goodly number of wide-awake guests at Carry Pond Camps who seem to be enjoying themselves very much. The fishing is fine and need be no better. Mr. Lambert and wife of New York have just returned home with all the trout the law allows them. They are yearly visitors at this place and have a way of enjoying themselves and making all others happy who come in contact with them. Rance Ham was their guide.

Mr. Fred Hubbard and wife of East Berlin, Conn. are also here as usual in June and July and are sadly missed when they leave for their home.

Mr. Lane has nearly completed an annex to the main house 28x30 which was much needed. It will be a thing of beauty and convenient and will be used as a sitting room.

Trout are rising to the fly and if you wish for good fly fishing you will make no mistake if you come to Carry pond.

FISHING

John Carville's Camps, Spring Lake.

Salmon, Square Tail and Lake Trout. My camps are most charmingly situated on the shores of Spring Lake, well-furnished excellent beds, purest of spring water and the table is first-class. Elevations 2,000 feet above sea level, grandest scenery and pure mountain air. Hay fever and malaria unknown. Spring Lake furnishes excellent Lake Trout and Salmon fishing and in the neighboring streams and ponds are abundance of Brook Trout. Buckboard road only 2 1/2 miles. An ideal family summer resort. Telephone communication with village and doctor. References furnished. Terms reasonable. Address for full particulars, JOHN B. CARVILLE, Flagstaff, Maine.

CAMP BLAKESLEE PROPRIETOR'S HONEYMOON AND PRESENTS.

Sportsmen Are Enjoying Fishing of the Best These July Days Away Back In the Maine Woods.

(Special correspondence to MAINE WOODS.)

BLAKESLEE, EUSTIS.

July 9, 1906.

High on the Spencer Stream in the beautiful and romantically located camps, Blakeslee, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph White are spending their honeymoon. It was last spring, noted in MAINE WOODS at the time that Joe became a benedict, finding his pretty and attractive wife in one of Boston's suburban cities. It was a courtship that commenced during last winter's Sportsmen's show in Boston, amid the imitations of woods life crowded in Mechanics' Building. It's continuation is here at Blakeslee where nature's music of the birds and trees is enjoyed by the soft light of the moon. What more beautiful or romantic place could have been selected for a honeymoon trip than this sylvan retreat?

Just as soon as Joe's sportsmen friends heard the good news that he was married the gifts began to arrive. Some of the wedding presents have already come into the camps but there are two large cases full at Eustis that have not yet arrived.

The fishing has been fine all the spring and is extremely good at present. The Spencer stream, which flows by these camps affords excellent brook trout fishing, as does Barker Pond and stream, Rock Pond, Blakeslee Lake and other places.

Messrs. Samuel Crowell and Robert Lewis of Boston, with Ned Sylvester, guide, made the Rock Pond trip recently, spending a day and taking 102 trout weighing from 1-3 of a pound to a pound each. The party saw 21 deer on this trip.

Another trip that Guide Sylvester took with Arthur Veasey of Haverhill, Mass., was very interesting.

Mr. Veasey caught 85 trout and also secured the picture of 10 deer swimming in the pond. After taking the picture Mr. Veasey paddled around the point and saw three more deer standing on the shore.

There are numerous beaver near the camp and as they are protected by law they are getting quite friendly. One evening not long ago one walked into the camp and while in the camp yard was photographed by one of the guests. If the photograph comes out good it will certainly be very interesting, for this is the first case remembered in this section where a beaver has posed for its picture in a camp yard.

As is usual the cuisine at Blakeslee is of the best, Miss Clara Goodwin of Lewiston presiding in the kitchen, assisted by Dick Lynch of Naples. The food is served in the dining room by Joe, and it is needless to say that mine host is an excellent waiter.

Among the Blakeslee arrivals are the following:

Mr. and Mrs. D. Veasey, Haverhill, Mass.; C. W. Dunham, Brattleboro, Vt.; Frank F. Ireland, Henry J. Murray, Concord, Mass.; Roland W. Butters, Cambridge, Mass.; Harold A. Ferre, Allston, Mass.; A. S. Lowell, C. E. Bigelow, Worcester, Mass.; W. M. Wood, Valley Falls, R. I.; F. W. Volker, Arnolds Mills, R. I.; M. C. Shepard, Central Falls, R. I.; Robert A. Lewis, Jr., Milton, Mass.; Samuel F. Crowell, Dr. W. T. Patch, H. W. Davis, Chas. Whiting, Boston; Chas. A. French, 195 Roxbury St., Roxbury, Mass.; Mr. R. E. Platt, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Tinker, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Fitzpatrick, Waterbury, Conn.; Wm. H. Roby, Whitewater, Wis.; Royal S. Wentworth, F. W. Wentworth, Chelsea, Mass.; E. A. Kimball, Kennebunk; J. B. Howard, G. W. Lay, Beirne Lay, Concord, Mass.; Walter P. Fry, John F. Fry, Robert P. Fry, Russell B. Fry, Marlboro, Mass.; S. A. Miller, Chicago.

The Starvation Bell of Beaver Camps.

Said Eddie Grant to Beaver's Cook, "See here, its just like this" These City folks are easy—fooled, Their meals, they'll never miss Our air is pure, our water fine And when they need a bite Black flies are plenty all day long. With minges "fresh," at night.

I've been a poor man all my life But there, I've quit for good, I'm going to see, how long, folks last Without one scrap of food. My plan's, a mighty simple one, And "works"—just like myself. Now let your eye a moment rest On yonder little shelf.

There you will see, Ed. Grant & Son's Improved Starvation Bell. And now upon my Simple Scheme I will, quite briefly I dwell That little bell no clapper has, And hence, as you suppose It makes precisely such a "clang" As "Wringers"—used for clothes

Each day when meal-time comes around Just give that bell one shake No sleeping boarders notice it Nor any; wide awake Meal time slips by, no food is used, No! not one ounce of hash We'll sink dead boarders in Fools Pond And then divide their cash.

Could anything be easier? Without one moments' toil I cal-e-late, two seasons hence To "corner" Standard Oil! And if by any accident, A Starving boarder come, With "Peggy's" chain we'll rig him out And fill him with Spruce Gum.

FRANCIS L. MAULE.

BEAVER POND, June 12th, 1906.

"Peggy" is a Bull Pup.

A favorite walk is the one through the spicy pine woods to the farm which is about a mile distant where deer may be seen at dawn and at sunset. Several parties have seen deer there this week.

The excellency of the fishing may be judged by the enthusiasm of the ladies. When they skip their beauty sleep to go fishing at five o'clock, breakfastless, and fish with hands bandaged to cover the blisters earned the day before, it is proof positive that there are game fish in the picturesque little lake surrounded by thickly wooded mountains.

A few days out there in the woods near to nature's heart will change the palest complexion into a good ruddy brown that denotes health and vigor.

A merry company was assembled at Redington, Sunday: Wm. Call and wife of Stamford, Conn.; Elisabeth Smith, Rose V. Taylor and Edith Allen Vandenberg of Rumford Falls, Me.;

Bishop, Boston; H. W. Seward and wife, Watertown; Elizabeth Smith, Rose V. Taylor, Edith Allen Vandenberg, Rumford Falls; L. R. Morse, Atlantic City, N. J.; Ralph Staples, Brockton; Frederick A. Thompson, Lyman H. Nelson, Portland; W. Sawyer, Earl W. Sawyer, Wilton; Geo. L. Carpenter, Phillips; William Call and wife, Stanford, Conn.; A. F. Davenport, Minnie Davenport, Alonzo Adley, Montrose, S. D.; Burton A. Davenport, Daisy Davenport, Master Bruce Davenport, Phillips; Charles H. Loomis, Harold G. Loomis, Medford; Sumner E. Austin, Farmington; W. A. Lee and wife, Stratton; E. W. Sanborn, North Wayne; Willis E. Bachelier and party, Blue Mountain Camps, Wilton; F. A. Faunce, Atlantic City, N. J.; J. A. Roderick, Skowhegan.

At Varnum Pond

As far as can be learned Mrs. F. E. Voter holds the ladies' record at Varnum pond for big fish. A short time ago she successfully landed a handsome 9-pound laker. The cottagers by the pond are enjoying the fishing very much.

WE invite you to send an article to MAINE WOODS.

WE publish this week a poem entitled "A Whining and a Pining Till the Ice Goes Out", that was somewhat delayed in this office. It should have appeared before, but we are sure our readers will appreciate it now.

SPRINGFIELD, is one of the cities in Massachusetts that furnishes a good deal of patronage to Maine. In another column we publish the names of some of the Springfield people, who do now and have in the past, visited Maine summer and fishing resorts.

ENSIGN YAGER of Youngstown, Ohio writes MAINE WOODS that he and J. D. Lawrence and O. G. Deit are planning a good time at the Rangeleys with J. D. Quimby and Harry Quimby for guides. We hope Mr. Yager will send us some more news of his trip.

FISHERMEN on the Presumpscot river report that black bass are quite plentiful there this year. The Rumford Falls Times reports that one angler recently caught twenty-six. It is not generally known that Sandy River is pretty well supplied, but such is the case. Lufkin pond, in Phillips, one of the best black bass ponds in Maine is doubtless responsible for the Sandy River supply.

ACCORDING to the opinions expressed by those who attended the meeting of the legislative committee appointed by the Maine Fish and Game Ass'n reported in another column, there is considerable prospect that the next legislature will meet and adjourn without enacting any law relating to fish and game that will be revolutionary in any way. We believe that the people in general throughout the state will approve of this policy and that the association and our system of fish and game protection will find new friends as a result.

MAINE WOODS which as Phillips Pongraph was the pioneer fish and game publication of Maine, originated the idea of offering a canoe as a premium for registered guides in return for new subscriptions. This publication originated many other plans for the profit and pleasure of sportsmen and guides. All have met with more or less favor. As the organ of fish, game, outing, and woods in interests of the state, MAINE WOODS is looked to for such things and we intend to do what we can to interest and benefit the guides as well as the sportsmen.

THE last two weeks has seen the fishing in Maine reach its height and settle back to about the usual summer luck. The Rangeleys, Moosehead, Belgrade, Grand Lake the Bangor salmon pool Sebago, the Dead river Region and all the rest of the best fishing places in the state suffered at first as a result of the cold weather and the rain. The good fishing was a long time coming, but the fish were there and with the warm weather they began to bite. Now the summer fishing is on, the trolling will soon be all over. Then the trout as a rule will be in the deep pools excepting where the waters are situated in very high altitude.

THE "Oxford (county) bears" are out on the hunt for berries, according to late reports. A two hundred pounder is reported near Roxbury pond.

Guides Canoe Contest.

OUR readers will note that with this issue we close a canoe contest for registered guides and start another, to end on December 17, 1906.

The one just closed has attracted considerable attention and resulted in a fine Morris canoe being secured by John Higgins of Allen's Mills with a core 13,167 votes. The next highest was Jim Harlow of Dead River who had 11,005; third N. W. McNaughton of Schoodic who had 10,163. Then came the other contestants in the order named elsewhere in this issue.

Guide Book Just Out.

THE Maine Central and Sandy River Railroads have just issued from the MAINE WOODS, a guide book to the Rangeley Lakes and Dead River Regions of Maine, that cannot but prove a very valuable advertising medium.

It is a book of a hundred pages, is profusely illustrated with attractive half tone cuts of the Rangeleys and the Dead River region and is full of information such as sportsmen and summer vacation folks are looking for. The book was compiled and arranged by Mr. Harrie B. Coe, chief clerk in the passenger department of the Maine Central Railroad and copyrighted by Col. F. E. Boothby, general passenger agent.

The half tone cuts were printed in the finest style of the art from 175 photographs.

We think those who see a copy of this book will agree with us that it is the best example of fine printing in this line that has yet been done in Maine.

Sent postpaid for 15 cents on application to F. N. Beal, Phillips, or Harrie B. Coe, Portland.

Sportsmen from Springfield.

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican publishes a list of names of Springfield people who have in past years and do now visit Maine fishing and summer resorts, principally the Rangeleys and Moosehead, from that city. The names given by the Republican, include William E. Gilbert, Charles Gilbert, H. L. Bowles, Warren Sturtevant, C. C. Merriam, Dr. Harry E. Rice, Robert Wallace, James E. Brigham, A. B. Call, Dr. and Mrs. D. J. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Day and their sons. The above have visited the Rangeleys in the past.

Among those who have visited Moosehead, are Walter H. Wesson, Nathan B. Dill, James W. Kirkham, A. B. Wallace, Dr. Luke Carcaran, Frederick Harris, Joseph Scattuck, Jr., Rev. Dr. B. D. Hahn, Mr. H. G. Gilmore, H. W. McGregory, James McKinnon, Dr. W. A. Smith, Henry Adams, C. H. McKnight.

Some former visitors to Alligator lake were Paymaster Holt of the Boston and Albany railroad, Arthur J. Berry, Dwight Fuller, Judson Strong, Jr., Dr. J. K. Wiley, George B. Clark, Horace L. Niles, Charles H. Allen, George H. Carter, F. L. Wesson, John H. Rogers, Horace L. Niles, George McGregory, Stiles Bush, H. L. Handy, George Clark, R. V. Cooley, Fred R. Swan, Warren, R. Holt, W. S. MANLY HARDY ON CANOES.

How They Are Made and Things Not Used In Them!

BREWER, ME., July 10, 1906.

To the Editor of MAINE WOODS:

In your issue of June 29, Mr. W. T. Ashby gives the most remarkable account of canoe building I have ever read. He tells of taking the bark from a standing tree and of using cedar boughs for ribs and to quote him exactly. Branches of every crook and angle were cut, peeled, scraped and dried in the sun. Birch bark was cut in strips and twisted to sew it with, pitch and birds eggs were used to glue the seams. I have owned a good many bark canoes and seen a great many built. I have never known a case where the bark for anything, except a toy canoe, was ever taken from a standing tree. The tree is always cut down and in June it is usually needful to band the tree loosely in several places with wide bands of cedar or elm bark, before the bark is split to prevent the bark from being torn by its own weight, as it often falls off as fast as it is split and would tear if not banded.

No cedar limbs or crooks are ever used. The gunnles ribs and lining are all of split cedar shaved birch bark is never used to sew canvas with. They are sewed with spruce roots peeled and split. Of late years ratan has sometimes been used. A canoe could not be pitched with pitch and birds eggs, pitch alone is all that is needed, and birds eggs if added would cook in building and spoil the best pitch ever made.

Pitch in old times was made by boxing pine trees and boiling the pitch so-called, but for many years it has been made from rosin boiled in oil or grease, that made with grease is better for cold weather as it is together. I have made excellent pitch by boiling rosin with the fat of beaver.

Having been several times the whole length of Allagash in canoes and been on snow shoes all over and round Allagash lake and over and round every pond of upper Allagash, this is the first time I have ever heard of the Allagash mountains. The only canoes known are close to the lake and were never inhabited by anyone.

The ORIGINAL and ONLY GENUINE
CONKLIN'S
SELF-FILLING PEN

Simply dip in the ink, press with the thumb, and the CONKLIN PEN is filled and ready for instant use. It is simple, convenient, efficient, with no complex mechanism and nothing to get out of order.

The elastic ink reservoir is compressed by the presser bar under the thumb, and, when released, instantly draws in the ink through the feed channels at the point. The quickly adjusted locking prevents ink from being forced out again. Feeds regularly until the last drop of ink in reservoir is used. Always responds without kick or balk. Cleans itself as easily as it is filled. Fully guaranteed.

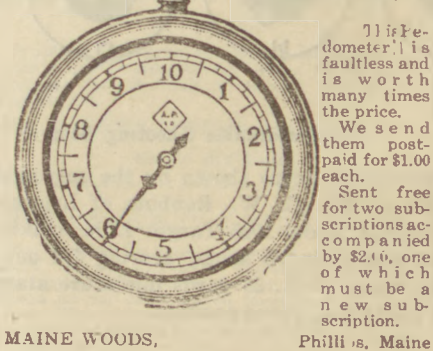

If your dealer does not handle the CONKLIN PEN, let us make you our Special Offer to Fountain Pen Users. Full information, with illustrated catalogue, sent upon request. Sold by dealers everywhere.

ALL AROUND THE LAKES.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

Over 80 guests are now enjoying life at this hotel and it is already a question of how to pack the people so that they will be contented, and if the hotel could accommodate 300 it would not be large enough for all who have written for rooms.

The warm days are spent by many on the piazzas, and others live on the water as several own launches and parties go all over the lake.

The fishing has been extra good the past week for those who have wet a line.

Rev. Fr. F. S. Mullen of Lowell, Mass. has made the best record, for no matter where he has fished he has been lucky, and the trout and salmon he has brought to net have been envied by less fortunate anglers. Eben Harnden is his guide and one day Fr. Mullen caught 14 3-4 pounds of fish, the largest a 5-3-4 pound salmon, and on Monday he caught another 4-pounder. Most of the fish were returned to the lake.

All gladly welcome Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pierce of Cambridge, Mass. who have been here many years but spent last summer in Europe; this season they will be "at home" in one of the log camps near the hotel.

Mr. George E. Clifford of Fitchburg, Mass. who has been here for many years, is here for a long rest, accompanied by his sister, Miss Dora L. Clifford and nurse, Miss H. L. Tucker. All hope the weeks passed here will bring back good health.

Mrs. A. H. Hudson and son of New York are here for their first trip and much pleased with the place.

THE BARKER.

The warm days are ideal here on the lake shore, and the guests pass most of their time out of doors, for piazza life is just the thing for them who do not care to tramp in the forest or sail on the lake.

During the past week the camps have nearly all been taken, and the rooms in the hotel are not often to be had for the midsummer rush of travel has begun.

Miss Bessie Sheeham of Lewiston came this week to assist Mr. Packard in the office.

Samuel Gaiser and son of Newark, N. J., arrived on Saturday for an extended stay.

More popular than ever promises to be this region for wedding parties, and those who think they are not known should take extra care not to scatter rice over the place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Wheelock of New York are now here on their wedding trip, and happy are the days passed in Camp Comfort. Mrs. Wheelock nee Miss Hunt will be remembered as one of the most charming young ladies of Lewiston and this proved that the New Yorker is not only attracted by the beauties of Maine's lakes and forests, but also by its beautiful daughters.

Happy days.

THE BIRCHES.

Haying time on the island, and the sweet clover and buttercups that have been so beautiful are now "new mown hay" filling the air with perfume.

The quiet and charm of life on this island is most fascinating after the rush of city life and the days are filled with pleasure and rest, while the guests have every comfort and attention.

Among the late arrivals was Edw. P. Brooks of Brockton, Mass., who made a short stay, but was so much pleased with the place plans to return in September for a longer sojourn.

Dr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Keyes and daughter, Miss Keyes of New Haven, Conn., have Camp Kilkare planning to remain until the autumn days. It is their first season and they are very much pleased with the place.

C. A. Barns, Harvard 1905 of Chattanooga, Tenn., one of the Masters at St. Paul's school Concord, N. H., is here for the summer as tutor for Jack Harrison of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Gilman of New York who are stopping at the Poland Springs, were here while making a tour of the lakes, and greatly delighted with log cabin life.

The following party who are to pass the season at Andover stopped here a few days this week: Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Newhall, Miss M. E. Fish, combines all the strong points of the $20 reels and many more without any of their weak points. No hand-made reel however expensive, can compare with it in perfect workmanship. It combines more good features than any reel made at any price: compensating spindle taking up wear on bearings; overcoming rattling found in other reels after a short time; exclusive friction device preventing backlash; tubular frame holds 1-3 more line than any other of same size; handle interchangeable to four different positions.

The 'Takapart' Reel

If you would all trouble leave behind "A TAKAPART" REEL'S the only kind we guarantee perfect construction and will make any repairs free, while other makers will charge from $3 to $10 for repairs. Made in 80 to 100 yards. The price is $6. Stop in at the nearest dealer's and see it. Look for stamp "TAKAPART" on it. It will tell you all about it. Postal us for it.

G. J. Swett of Lynn, Mass. Miss Fish was high line of the party and caught some fine trout and salmon. Mrs. Newhall landed a 2-pound salmon just before they started Monday morning going via Middle Dam.

ANGLER'S RETREAT.

The weather has been cool and delightful and the fishing for the past two weeks has been fine.

In fact from different parts of the region sportsmen have come and made good catches.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Williams of Glastonbury, Conn., who returned home last week after a stay of ten days, had W. J. Morton for guide.

Mr. Williams who is an expert fly fisherman, with a jock scott and silver doctor fly, in a short time took 11 salmon that weighed from 1 1-2 pounds to 4 1-2 pounds each, also 9 trout from 1 1-2 to 2 1-2 pounds each.

Mrs. Williams also handles a fly rod in a graceful manner and landed several 2 pounders.

H. A. Pratt of Middleboro, Mass., with Morton, guide went over to B Pond one day and with a fly took 9 trout that weighed from 1 1-2 pounds to 2 1-2 pounds each, and not often does one see so handsome a string of fish.

On their return they stopped at Pond-in-the-river and dropped the fly and brought to net 11 salmon that weighed 2 pounds each, returning then to the water. The next day Morton was a guide for a Bostonian who at the dam from the pools with the fly took 3 trout weighing 4, 3 1-2, 2 pounds and salmon 3, 2 1-2, and 2 pounds.

Edward L. Steel of Hartford, Conn. had good luck while here for a few days. Mr. Sargent was his guide and he took on a fly a 4 1-2-pound trout and a 5 3-4-pound salmon. Also many smaller ones.

S. F. Peaslee of Upton who knows every part of this forest as he has for years been in the employ of the Col. estate, went out to the dam with Will Sargent last Friday night and cast the fly for an hour, landing a 2 1-2-pound trout and a 4-pound salmon.

Help! Help!
I'm Falling

Thus cried the hair. And a kind neighbor came to the rescue with a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair was saved! This was because Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair medicine. Falling hair is caused by a germ, and this medicine completely destroys these germs. Then the healthy scalp gives rich, healthy hair.

SPRING FARM NOTES.

Trout Are Taken by the Hundred In This Vicinity.

(Special correspondence to MAINE WOODS.)

SPRING FARM,
CARRABASSETT, July 9, 1906.

Fishing on the Carrabassett at this place continues good, some handsome strings of trout being brought in by the anglers who are tarrying here. Many who stop here for a time on their way to the sporting camps further up the line are so well satisfied that they return for a longer stay.

Proprietor Benson is already making arrangements for the entertainment of the hunters that will be here in the fall, for it is a well known fact that exceptionally good hunting is found in the immediate vicinity of Spring Farm.

Mr. Herbert Yeoman of the Mohair Plush Co., of Lowell, Mass., is spending the week at the farm. He got an even hundred trout the first day he was out and 50 more a short time after. Mr. Yeoman says he shall certainly come in the fall and bring his friend, Mr. Callahan with him.

Among the recent arrivals at the farm are the following:

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Merrill, Farmington; C. F. Ware, Waterville; R. H. Stobie, Waterville; G. H. Thompson, Freeman; H. S. Wing, Kingfield; Earle Wing, Kingfield; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Winter, Kingfield; E. E. Jenkins, Gladys Pennell, Walter J. Pennell, Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Pennell, Clarence Drew, Kingfield; H. T. Hewett, Stratton; E. A. Maxim, Madison; Mrs. W. A. True, London, England.

Camp Notes.

Deer are reported plentiful at Long pond.

Frank Lowell and his son Prescott were at Long pond fishing last week. Mr. Lowell caught a large salmon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Beedy are at the Edgar Parker cottage, Long pond.

Mr. Guy Blunt, formerly of North Livermore, now a resident of Woodfords, has bought the Wells cottage,

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carter of Phillips, Mrs. Carter's sister Mrs. Harry Twombly of North Chelmsford, Mass. and her daughter, are at Camp Winona, Long pond for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Angell and party from Providence, R. I. are at the Angell cottage, Long pond. Sidney Harden has a naphtha launch and is guide for the party and Mr. and Mrs. Will Parlin are looking out for the cam.s.

Mrs. W. A. D. Cragin is spending a couple of weeks at Cliff cottage, Long pond, the guest of Mrs. C. E. Parker. Miss Christine Cragin spent Sunday there.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cragin, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Skolfield, and daughter Wilhelmine, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Everett spent last Sunday at Camp Winona, Long pond.

The Automobile Trip.

Details of Glidden route through the Dead River region, from North New Portland, Maine, to Rangeley Lake, Maine.

Leaving the Dirigo House at North New Portland, take first left hand turn, .2 miles, following the telephone wire, passing a farm house on the left. At the next fork of the roads take the left hand road, following the single telephone wire to the left. Cross bridge. This is the beginning of Lexington Flats, a four mile straight-away course wide enough for two, and in many places three, automobiles, with no natural or artificial speed limitations. The road is clean, no holes, bridges or dangerous places. At four miles a road comes in from the left hand but does not cross the road upon which you are driving; continue straight ahead. At 7.9 a brown unpainted building on the left side with the sign "Post-office;" the road branches right and left. Whether you take the right or left road is optional, both roads coming together two and a half miles away. Both roads are good going the right hand road having a slight preference in quality. Marking the course by the right hand road, at 8.9 the road forks; continue on the left hand course. There is a white house on the right hand. At 9.4 a farm road branches off to the left across a bridge to a farm house which is plainly in view. Do not take this road. At 9.6 there is a water trough; a small white schoolhouse on the right hand side is passed at 10.1.

At 10.4 the other road—that is, the left hand road from the post office—joins both roads and the road from this point gradually ascends to the height of the land at 12.4. From 12.4 there is a slight descent and again a rise and at 16 the road drops into a short valley and across the head of a small pond; the going is right. At 17.6 a sign board is passed "Flagstaff 11 miles." At 19.1 the Ledge house of Good Woods Inn is passed. At 21.9 Parsons farm, a comfortable country boarding house, where transient guests are entertained, appears. At 24 Dead River. At 26.9 small schoolhouse. At 29.6 turn to the left away from Flagstaff. Do not turn to the right and across the bridge that takes you into Flagstaff. At 32 turn right into Stratton passing through the village by Hotel Blanchard, and at 39.8 water fountain. Turn left at 41; turn sharp left at sign post.

The road here forms a T. You leave the straight road and turn into the left hand road. At 42.2 is Greene's Farm Hotel, where the road curves to the right and then again to the left. You cross for the first time the narrow-gauge railroad at 42.9, the second time at 44.3 and immediately thereafter for the third time at 46.8, for the fourth time at 46.9, for the fifth time at 47.3 and for the sixth time at 48.2 and finally at 51.3.

At the Dead River station 51.9 you turn to the right. Then crossing the track to the left take the straight road to Rangeley, about five miles distant. Just before entering Rangeley at 54.5 you cross the railroad track, from this point the Rangeley Lake House is plainly visible. Then follow into Rangeley, turning left at the second street after entering the village, following down into the main street, then turning back left again through the village, down a slight descent, and then by another ascent in the main street of the village, then turning right, into the private road which leads to the Rangeley Lake House.

BANK EXAMINER RESIGNS.

MR. TIMBERLAKE OF PHILLIPS TENDERS RESIGNATION.

Hon. W. B. Skelton of Lewiston, Ex-Mayor, Is His Successor. Mr. Timberlake Goes Into Business in Portland.

It will be a surprise to many of our readers to learn that Hon. Fremont E. Timberlake of Phillips, state bank examiner, has tendered his resignation to Governor Cobb. Mr. Timberlake informed Governor Cobb several weeks ago of his intention to resign and he was urged by the Governor to change his decision, but an opportunity to engage in a lucrative business for which he is eminently fitted proved a greater temptation than he cared to ignore.

Mr. Timberlake has been a citizen of Phillips for the past 25 years or more. During that time, beginning as a young lawyer without practice and entirely dependent upon his own efforts and his own ability, Mr. Timberlake gained steadily in practice and in influence until he was called to the high office of bank examiner by Governor Cleaves in 1885. He has received considerable training along the lines required in the state banking department by his long connection with Phillips Savings bank as its treasurer and as treasurer of the Phillips & Rangeley railroad.

Mr. Timberlake tendered his resignation in a letter dated June 21. The letter of resignation read as follows:

"I have the honor to tender my resignation as bank examiner of the State of Maine, the same to take effect immediately on the appointment and qualification of my successor.

"It has been my constant desire, during the term of my office, to so conduct the affairs of the department as to merit the approval of all interested in the welfare of the State banking institutions and the prosperity of our State. While I have not accomplished all that could be wished, the continued growth and increasing financial strength of these institutions, under the wise and economical management of their officials, have been the source of great satisfaction. The performance of the duties of this office has been a personal pleasure, and I sever my connection with the affairs of the State with feelings of regret, and do so only because of personal business reasons which must control.

"Through you I wish at this time to express my appreciation of the great honor conferred upon me by the people of the State, the uniform courtesy and consideration of the officials of the various institutions under the supervision of the department, and the valuable services rendered by my

OPERATION AVOIDED

EXPERIENCE OF MISS MERKLEY

She Was Told That an Operation Was Inevitable How She Escaped It.

When a physician tells a woman suffering with serious feminine trouble that an operation is necessary, the very thought of the knife and the operating table strikes terror to her heart, and our hospitals are full of women coming for just such operations.

There are cases where an operation is the only resource, but when one considers the great number of cases of menacing female troubles cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after physicians have advised operations, no woman should submit to one without first trying the Vegetable Compound and writing Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice, which is free.

Miss Margaret Merkley, of 275 Third Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "Loss of strength, extreme nervousness, shooting pains through the pelvic organs, bearing down pains and cramps compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor, after making an examination, said I had a female trouble and ulceration and advised an operation. To this I strongly objected and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The ulceration quickly healed, all the bad symptoms disappeared and I am once more strong, vigorous and well."

Female troubles are steadily on the increase among women. If the monthly periods are very painful, or too frequent and excessive—if you have pain or swelling low down in the left side, bearing-down pains, don't neglect yourself; try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

assistant and clerks."

In his letter to Mr. Timberlake accepting his resignation, Governor Cobb says:

"My dear Mr. Timberlake: I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 21st of June in which you resign the office of bank examiner of this State. Several weeks ago you made me aware of your contemplated purpose to take this step and as you already know I have used every argument at my disposal to induce you to change or postpone that decision. Your views of a personal nature and affecting only your own welfare were too strong to be withstood. It is with extreme reluctance that I accept your resignation herewith.

"Your service to the state has been long and valuable. You have brought a farm and prepared for college at the Bowdoinham high school, and at the Nichols Latin school in Lewiston, graduating from the latter institution in 1888. He entered Bates college, and was graduated from that institution in 1892. While in college he did considerable work in preparation for the profession of law, which he afterward entered, taught in the night schools in Lewiston, and did much newspaper work.

After leaving college, Mr. Skelton read law in the office of Newell & Judkins, in Lewiston, and after being admitted, formed a co-partnership with Mr. Newell, which exists at the presto the administration of an important office the progressive methods which modern business demands and have coupled with it that wise conservatism upon which the banking interests and the public generally are always enlisted to insist. You have every reason to be proud of the high standard of efficiency maintained by the department you are about to leave, and I am sure you will take with you to private life the respect and good wishes of all who are familiar with the scope and effect of your work.

"I want to thank you personally for the evidence of friendship received at your hands and to express the hope that you may meet with deserved success in your new undertaking. Please accept my assurances of regret and esteem and believe me. Very truly yours, W. T. Cobb."

Mr. Timberlake will enter the bond at time. He was a member of the common council of Lewiston, in 1893-4.

In September, 1900, he was elected county attorney, and served four years, with great credit to himself in that position. While county attorney he made a speech before the election committee at Augusta, in a contested election case, which attracted to him much attention, and for which he received high praise. He was mayor of Lewiston in 1903-4, and it is generally conceded that the two administrations were among the best the city ever had.

Mr. Skelton is a man of studious habits, a strong writer, a good speaker, and as an advocate is able and logical. He is married, and has a family of brokerage business with handsomely appointed offices on Exchange street in Portland, under the firm name of Timberlake & Webb, the latter being a Springfield, Ohio broker.

Mr. Timberlake's successor is Hon. William B. Skelton, former mayor of Lewiston and now a member of Governor Cobb's staff. Mr. Skelton is an able lawyer and we predict that he will make a marked success in his new work.

The Hon. William B. Skelton of Lewiston was born in Bowdoin, Me., August 9, 1871. He spent his early life upon four boys, living in a pleasant residence on Main street.

EEL WAS TEN FEET LONG.

DEER AT KING AND BARTLETT LAKE EAT DYNAMITE.

Fishing Continues Good Here. Some of the Side Trips From These Camps Described.

[Special correspondence to MAINE WOODS.]

KING AND BARTLETT, SPENCER, ME.

July 9, 1906.

With the coming of July comes also the people who delight to spend restful hours in the deep seclusion of the forest or on some romantically situated lake or stream.

It is rest of the greatest clarity, it is a getting back to nature that the tired physical and mental make-up needs about once in so often. At King and Bartlett the seeker after these essentials finds them in profusion.

Mr. Arthur Weld of New York City, who is well known in many other cities recently saw an eel in the lake that he says must be the grandfather of all eels in that body of water. The fish—if such it is—was swimming near the wharf about 18 inches below the surface when Mr. Weld first saw it. He thought the apparent great length was due to the magnifying effect of the water, but after a second's careful scrutiny he decided that it was an eel of tremendous proportions, appearing to be at least 10 feet in length.

Another odd thing here is the fact that the deer have an appetite for dynamite. Proprietor Harry M. Pierce had occasion, recently, to blast a few boulders out of the buckboard road. So he procured a considerable amount of dynamite and left it where he later intended to blast the rocks. Returning in a few days he found the dynamite gone and also evidences that it had been eaten by deer. It is a question now among the guests regarding the length of time that will elapse before they will hear an explosion or explosions in the woods and see pieces of deer flying in all directions.

Ralph Hayes is carrying the mail on this end of the line his trip being to Deer pond and return, a total distance of 12 miles. Through heat or cold, sunshine or storm, he daily makes this trip that Uncle Sam's mail may reach the sportsmen here in the fastnesses of the forest. The postoffice here, as in other years, is looked after by Mr. Fred Allen of Farmington, one of Proprietor Pierce's assistants.

The fishing here in the lake and in the ponds and streams near the camps continues excellent. One of the nearest ponds is called Little King" and is easily reached by a good trail. Of late several sportsmen have taken a trip to Thomas Gerard's camps on Spencer lake. This is a pleasant trip and is easily made.

Clinton Harris and party of seven from New York are expected soon.

Wm Pratt of Farmington arrived Sunday and A. H. Presson of the same town came Saturday night.

Other arrivals expected soon are Dr. and Mrs. John Marshall and Dr. and Mrs. Griffith, George Henderson and David Walterstein all of Philadelphia.

The new train service is proving a great advantage to sportsmen visiting the e camps as they can save considerable time. A sportsmen leaving Boston at 10 p. m. arrives at these camps at 6 p. m. the next day, after a night's rest on the train.

Among the arrivals at King and Bartlett are the following:

Samuel Townsend, Plainfield, N. J.; Francis Sedgwick, B. Vieler, C. C. McFarland, G. W. Hoerl, Arthur Weld, New York City; A. M. Newhall, Lynn, Mass.; J. I. Allen, V. F. Prentice, Worcester, Mass.; W. Kerr, East Orange, N. J.; Wm. Cook Belknap, Newbury, N. Y.; Charles A. French, Jamaica Plain, Mass.; Charles F. Whitling, Cambridge, Mass.; Dr. W. T. Patch, H. W. Davis, Boston; W. E. Towner, J. C. Barrett, Noel Barrett, New York; L. A. Miller, Robert O. Bertz, Chicago, Ill.; F. A. Wheeler, Bridgeport, Conn.

LADIES GET THE TROUT.

Fish at Blakeslee Come Freely] to the Fly This Year.

[Special correspondence to MAINE WOODS.]

EUSTIS, July 4, 1906.

Twenty-two guests are enjoying the excellent fly fishing we are having at these camps and basket after basket full of trout come in lately. These waters seem to be fairly alive with trout. Many sportsmen visiting the Dead River region visit Blakeslee where they are sure of plenty of trout, excellent accommodations, a table that is unsurpassed. The ladies of the camp are the high liners in fishing and to their credit go all the big ones.

Mrs. Tinker and Mrs. Fitzpatrick caught 40 trout weighing 22 pounds in one hour's time right in front of the camps.

Fishing in the lakes holds good and many large fish are secured.

SPENCER LAKE CAMPS.

July 4, 1906.

To the Editor of MAINE WOODS.

While your paper contains many interesting accounts from the various camps in this state, it would be apropos to mention there is a place located on the map of Maine called Big Spencer pond, located in Somerset county. To those who have never visited these waters nor have enjoyed the hospitality of that wonderful little proprietor, Thomas Gerard, let me state, you don't know what you have missed. It is reached from Jackman, (on the Canadian Pacific railroad), by a 20 mile trip by boat and team. The camps are most beautifully located, and it is truly the garden spot of Maine. At the head of the pond, (six miles long), is a beautiful, smooth, white, sand beach of 400 yards which affords most excellent bathing.

The camps are fine and numerous, surrounded by beds of flowers. The best of Rangeley boats and canoes in perfect condition are at your service. In connection with this set of camps is a truck garden of no mean proportion that would make the average farmer blush to look at, but which fills the hearts of his guests with pride and satisfaction and they all wear "the smile that won't come off", for they know their palates will be tickled during the whole season with all kinds of products fresh from the garden, for know ye the way to bring contentment and reach one's pocket book is through one's stomach. Gerard knows how to bring contentment to his guests and reaches but a small corner of your pocket book. Little things too small to ask for constantly you will find him doing. Ever and anon you will find him studying the attention of his guests.

The view in front of the cabins is picturesque in the extreme. Everywhere the bold, rugged mountains so well timbered, with their beautiful growth, whose foliage, so refreshing, that soft green so restful to the eye extends to the very water's edge.

Here you are surrounded by mountains everywhere, to the right, to the left and in the far beyond, one towering above each other in turn. Peak after peak rise above each other until at last twenty miles away looms up "Old Bigelow" as a background towering far above all others in her majesty, as though she were looking down upon her children ranges and peaks and smiling in proud content because they are so superbly gowned in their various dresses of different colors and tints of green. Then, too when one takes a canoe in front of the camp and paddles up through into the fish pond what a sight of the beauty of nature presents itself.

Hard Scramble, a bold and rocky ledge looming up to the right in great contrast to the green covered timber of Round mountain beyond. The fine meadow lands at the head of the pond above which course for miles is Spencer stream. Right here you are practically living among the moose and the deer, who seem to own the very water and the surrounding country. Half a mile up brings you at the foot of Clark Field noted so well for its great part-

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription,

Is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse because of the uncertainty as to their harmless character, but is a medicine of known composition, a full list of all its ingredients being printed in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. The "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is in fact the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, sold through druggists, that does not contain alcohol and that too in large quantities. Furthermore, it is the only medicine for woman's special diseases, the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of some of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Don't forget that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for woman's weaknesses and delicate ailments, is not a patent or secret medicine, being the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated and graduated physician, engaged in the practice of his chosen specialty—that of diseases of women—that its ingredients are printed in plain English on every bottle wrapper; that it is the only medicine especially designed for the cure of woman's diseases that contains no alcohol, and the only one that has a professional endorsement worth more than all the so-called "testimonials" ever published for other medicines. Send for these endorsements as above. They are free for the asking.

If you suffer from periodical, headache, backache, dizziness, pain or dragging down sensation low down in the abdomen, weak back, have disagreeable and weakling, catarrhal, pelvic drain, or are in distress from being long on your feet, then you may be sure of benefit from taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

ridge shooting, where you can take them on the wing. Further up you reach Clark Dam where the guests fish for the large trout and in a five minutes walk one reaches Spencer field, so large and beautiful and so noted for its deer.

Follow the water from Clark Dam and in one mile you reach the Rolling Dam, but stop long enough at the spring hole to catch your dinner and leave the many other trout that are seen from 1-4 to 2 pounds in weight for yourself and others who want to make a fair catch when they fish these famous waters. As you paddle along and around, turn after turn in this Ulysses like course, not knowing when you will be facing a moose or a deer or even a bear as I have done, amid the lichen moss, hanging in long shreds from the tree tops downward and as your canoe will go onward along through the tall swale grass which grows on either side of the shore. The rustling noise seems to be in perfect harmony with the surroundings and the scene is picturesque indeed.

From Rolling Dam you paddle up to the quick water and have some royal fishing if they are taking the fly. Now you have gone five miles, but you have been interested and only a little time has been consumed, so you can paddle for 10 minutes where a 5 minute carry will bring you to Lige Hall Pond with its many rocks and boulders, up to the head of the pond and up the stream where you glide along in your canoe and get satisfaction with the beauties of these waters on the fly. A short carry will bring you to Whipple Pond where moose and deer are so abundant. The view at the last two ponds named is fine indeed and you can return to camp the same way. As you enter the mouth of the thoroughfare you look back and see such a picture; the shores at the foot of Fish Pond is a beautiful sand beach, so nice for a private bath. Away in the distance looking up the pond are to be seen in all their glory the famous Attean mountains, while to the left is Hard Wood mountains and the great ranges of No. 5 and 6 towering up towards the mother sky. As you look your eye centers if you have been there before, towards the left of the head of the pond and you see Rocky Point, renowned for its famous fishing for these waters, weighing from 3-4 to 2-1-4 pounds. Here is the starting point for Rock and Iron Ponds, ascending the wagon sled road for 5 miles of good going, you reach Iron Pond where Gerard, has a camp near the shore. This pond abounds with trout, and they run from 1-4 to 2-1-2 pounds. A mile farther on is Rock Pond, at the base of those lofty ranges of 5 and 6 which form a gap and reminds one very forcibly of the famous Delaware to the fly directly in front of the camps and will average 1 pound. There are plenty of lake trout in these waters and they run from 2 to 12 pounds in weight. The fly fishing for trout in Spencer lake has been good and by honest work one can realize good results.

Mr. John T. Little, the poet has been here three weeks and is charmed with the surroundings. He came for rest and new material to work on and no doubt this genius with the pen will in the near future charm the public with his elaborate poems.

Mr. Gerard is a busy man, but still he took time one afternoon to shoulder his gun and go for a bear and he returned with the hide of a monster that he shot.

I will mention a few of the names of sportsmen and their success while at these camps along with the arrivals up to date.

"OLD SPORT."

An Animal Story For Little Folks

The Lazy Goat

There was once a goat whose name was Fritz and who was not at all fond of work, and the members of his family sent for the doctor and said:

"What shall we do, doctor, to restore our little goat to health?"

The doctor looked him over and then replied, "He merely needs exercise and plenty of it."

The next day the doctor came back to see how his patient was getting along. He was surprised to find Fritz crying as if his heart would break.

"What is the matter?" asked the doctor.

"Well, sir," replied Fritz, "you told me to exercise, and I am crying for the exercise that it furnishes me. Do you think that I'll soon be well, sir?"

"No," answered the doctor, "nor will any one else who tries such a plan as that. You are so lazy that nothing will cure you except a good, sound thrashing."

And the same day his father gave him one, and he began to grow better at once.—Detroit Journal.
